HARTMAN and Lowell carpets in new styles and beautiful colorings, just received by Linn & Scruggs.

I wish to inform the public that I cannot be understood by any other firm in central Illinois, as I have no rents to pay, and am therefore in a position to give my customers the benefit of the lowest prices possible. I always do a square business and always endeavor to treat my patrons right. My home is in Decatur, I am here to stay; and I offer prices that defy successful competition. See the following: Best wood seat chair, $2.50; Set of cane seat chairs, 5.00; New bedsteads, 3.00; No. 4 bedsteads, copper bottom, 1.75.

In glassware, quensware, stoves and tinware, I offer special bargains. Second-hand goods bought, sold and exchanged. All goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge. The above prices will be strictly adhered to, and a child can buy as well as a grown person, and all will be treated properly. Come and see me. No. 24 Franklin St., (Old Bevere House), Decatur, Ill.

Buggies at a Bargain.

I have one new spring wagon, one new open piano box buggy, one second hand bow; box buggy, and one second hand Duplex buggy, each or all of which will be sold remarkably cheap for cash. Apply at the Bowman farm, four miles east of Decatur, near Spangler's mill.

CHERRY STORE.

Lost Book.

Lost on Wednesday last, somewhere between the east end of Wood street and the residence of the late Isaac Kepler, Sr., on South Broadway, a fine fur box, which the finder will please leave at the A. Kepler cigar store and receive a suitable reward for his or her trouble. (April 6th)

Get ready to "take in" the Madame Rentz minstrel entertainment to be given at the opera house on Thursday evening next. Popular prices. See the paper on the wall, and go early, if you want a seat. The Danbury News says: "A most wonderful transformation has taken place in the quality of entertainment given by the Rentz Minstrels, as seen at the opera house last night. The large audience present will bear out in the assertion that it is one of the most charming melanges of melody and refined mirth ever witnessed in this place, and the prediction is confidently made that should they ever return no hall in this vicinity will be able to hold their many admirers."

Tax invitations are out for the first annual ball of the Iron Miners Union No. 248, to be given at Guards' Armory on Monday evening, April 18th. Music by Prof. Goodman's orchestra. The committees are: Richard Fitzpatrick, Albert Steen, Harry Rogers, John F. Meads and William Morris, arrangements; Meads, Rogers and Steen, invitation; William Davis, Geo. P. Sawyer, Henry Christensen and Rogers, reception; Steen, Fitzpatrick, Albert Puhl and George Shartel, floor. Tickets, $1.00.

A STRANGER arrived in the city this morning from Livingston, anxious to find a man named Lamb. At first it was supposed he wanted to see McKahan, who was drugged and robbed Monday night, but the description he gave of Lamb did not tally with the appearance of the unfortunate young man referred to.

The calico ball given at Turner Hall last night was attended by about 400 couples, and was prolonged until nearly 8 o'clock this morning. The Harmonia Club will probably give the closing masquerade ball of the year at Guard's Armory, on Tuesday evening, April 26th.

The train dispatchers office of this, the Clinton and Central division of the Illinois Central railroad company, has been transferred from Decatur to Clinton, with Mr. Gibson in charge as heretofore. The change was made on Monday last. Mr. Gibson will reside in Clinton with his family.

Horses Wanted!
For the next thirty days I will be found at 37 North Church street, Decatur, Ill., to buy good sound horses for the Eastern market. Draft and carriage horses, weight from 1,000 to 1,500 pounds.

Shoemaker Notice.
The co-partnership heretofore existing under the firm name of Penwell, Brown & Co. is dissolved, on East Main street, will be conducted by James C. Penwell.

A Jolly Company.
The Harrison musical comedy company, under the management of Mr. Stanley, appeared at the opera house last night and was greeted by a fine audience. The play presented was "Photos," which was, truly, an epitome of genuine side-splitting mirth and music, bristling with comic situations, sparkling music and laughable effects, that kept the audience in the best of spirits to the fall of the curtain. The stars of the brilliant constellation of specialty artists are Miss Alice and Mr. Louis Harrison, who are sister and brother; Mr. R. E. Graham and Miss Carrie Daniels. No brief notice can do the attraction justice. It must be seen to be appreciated, and if you witness the performance once and hear the jokes and songs once, you will want to see the Harrison slightly for an indefinite period.

The Stookey Surprises.
Last evening Mrs. W. H. Addis, Mrs. Harry Baker, and Mrs. H. B. Montgomery, with the assistance of Mr. G. W. Davidson and a few other persons, manipulated a very delightful social surprise on Mrs. J. M. Stookey at her comfortable home on West Main street, the party being given in honor of the anniversary birthday of the hospitable hostess which occurred yesterday. The invited guests assembled at the residence during the absence of Mrs. Stookey, and on her return she found her friends waiting to receive her. During the evening Rev. Barton, pastor of James' Chapel, presented Mrs. Stookey with an elegant silver casket, a pair of beautiful vases, and a flower basket from the ladies of the W. C. T. U., a set of cane-bottom chairs from Mr. Stookey, and a camp rocking chair from Mr. Davidson. A splendid repast was served in fine style to which all did full justice. The party was a complete success and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

How to Buy a Horse.
An old horseman, speaking on this subject, says: "If you want to buy a horse, don't believe your own brother. Take no man's word for it. Your eye is your market. Don't buy a horse in harness. Unhitch him and take him everything off but his halter, and lead him around. If he has a corn or is stiff, or has any other failing, you can see it. Let him go by himself a little way, and if he staves right into anything you may know he is stone blind. No matter how clear and bright his eyes are, he can't see any more than a bat. Back him up, too. Some horses show their weakness or tricks in that way when they don't in any other. But be as smart as you can, you'll get caught some time. Knead an expert gets stuck. A horse may look ever so nice, and go a mile a minute, and yet have its loose for loose. There isn't a live man could tell it something happens. Or he may have a weak back. Give him the whip and off he goes for a mile or two, then all of a sudden he sits down in the road. After a rest he gets up and starts again, but he soon sits down for good, and nothing but a derrick could raise him."

PERSONAL MENTION.

"Uncle Henry" is hard to beat. The Harrisons registered at the Saint Nicholas yesterday, and departed for Peoria this afternoon.

Prof. and Mrs. S. M. Lutz, of this city, are in Danville, and will manage a grand concert there to-morrow evening.

Mr. E. L. Holly, Superintendent of the American District Steam Heating Company, who is now at Springfield, will be in Decatur again on Saturday.

Prof. Nathan Sheppard will deliver his lecture on "Plucky Women" at the tabernacle, on Friday evening, for the benefit of the W. C. T. U. The New York Tribune says: "The audience was vastly entertained by his racy illustrations, facile language and quick oscillations, from plithy aphorism to overflowing fun." Let there be a good turnout. Admission, 10 cents.

Why He Didn't Get Here.

The following letter explains itself. It will be appreciated by those people who went to the tabernacle several evenings in succession to hear Mrs. Henry lecture, but were each time disappointed:

Dear M. Taylor, Corresponding Secretary of the W. C. T. U., Decatur, Ill.

EVANSTON, ILL., April 1, 1881.

I arrived home yesterday from an extended tour and found your card, which for some strange reason had not been forwarded. To say that I am surprised and grieved, but faintly expresses my feelings. Mrs. Cummings had told me I was to go to Decatur, probably, and as the time drew near, I wrote asking definitely, but heard nothing more, and not knowing that any real engagement had been made, I gave myself no uneasiness about it. Mrs. C. was suddenly called from home by the sickness of her daughter, and this must account for it all. She dropped me a hasty note, saying I must make my own engagements until her return and then this work was put into the hands of Miss Helen L. Hood, Room 4, 148 Madison St., Chicago, and I supposed the Decatur work was postponed or given up by you. What can I do for you now? I hope I can help you out some way.

Yours truly, Mrs. S. M. I. HENRY.

State Evangelist Ill. W. C. T. U.
